ARRESTS AND COURT APPEARANCES

On July 12, 1968, [redacted] advised as follows:

[redacted] CARMINE DI BIASI, also known as (aka) Sonny Pinto [redacted] and stated that in the early 1950's, DI BIASI and SONNY RED INDELICATO committed a murder a murder on Elizabeth Street, New York City. INDELICATO was arrested for murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. DI BIASI was not caught and the police were looking for him for five years when he gave himself up. DI BIASI was tried and sentenced to death but his conviction was reversed and he eventually went free. DI BIASI was subsequently "made a button" during this time. INDELICATO and DI BIASI are seen together frequently.

b7D

On July 19, 1972, Bureau of Criminal Identification, New York City Police Department (NYCPD), advised that subject INDELICATO was on life-time parole with New York State Parole.

On September 5, 1972, INDELICATO was arrested by New York State Parole for parole violation (consorting) and was lodged in the Manhattan House of Detention. He was arrested because he was seen at the Nyack New York apartment [redacted] were hiding after the JOEY GALLO murder.

b7C

b7D

On September 18, 1972, [redacted] advised as folbws:

SONNY RED INDELICATO, who is on life-time parole, was picked up the other day for consorting. This is based on the fact that he visited [redacted] in Nyack when [redacted] was on the lam. He stated SONNY RED has been very close to [redacted] SONNY PINTO for many years. SONNY RED is very worried about this arrest and is fearful of going back to jail and is willing to pay a large amount of money to get away with it.

NY 92-7006

On October 2, 1972, [redacted] advised as follows:

Source advised that SONNY RED INDELICATO has been moved to Sing-Sing Prison and is "crying the blues." He is awaiting his hearing on violation of parole. SONNY RED is willing to pay a large amount of money in order to get out of jail. He supposedly sent word to one [redacted] asking for money, but [redacted] said he will not send money to SONNY RED, as he is trying to keep all his money together regarding another matter he is handling.

On October 19, 1973, [redacted] advised as follows:

b7C

b7D

SONNY RED INDELICATO was released from Sing Sing Prison two days ago. INDELICATO was arrested several weeks ago by the Parole Board for violating his life-time parole but that it was discovered that the Parole Board based its arrest from a photograph taken over four years ago of INDELICATO in conversation with a known criminal. SONNY's [redacted]

On November 29, 1972, INDELICATO [redacted]

b3

b7C

On December 13, 1972, ALPHONSE INDELICATO was indicted for perjury, resulting from Grand Jury testimony before the Manhattan Grand Jury. INDELICATO was arrested same day and was lodged in the Manhattan House of Detention in lieu of $15,000 bail.

On January 10, 1973, [redacted] advised that no trial date has been set for INDELICATO's perjury charge. Source stated New York State Parole also has a detainer on INDELICATO.

On March 5, 1973, [redacted] Manhattan House of Detention, New York City, advised as follows:

b2

b7C

INDELICATO was released from the Manhattan House of Detention on February 26, 1973, after posting $15,000 bail. He stated that New York State Parole was forced by court action to lift detainer on INDELICATO. While incarcerated, INDELICATO had only one visitor, [redacted] [redacted] New York City.

b7D

On March 6, 1973, [redacted] advised as follows:

Source stated the reason SONNY RED got out of jail was because parole had to lift detainer on him. Source stated the court ruled that if INDELICATO could make bail the detainer was illegal because INDELICATO was merely indicted and not convicted. Source stated that SONNY RED posted $15,000 bail on February 26, 1973.

On June 6, 1973, [redacted] advised as follows:

SONNY RED's trial for perjury should be starting in the next few weeks. Source stated that SONNY RED is very worried and cannot understand why the authorities have been putting so much heat on him for all these years. Source stated that SONNY RED is not doing anything these days to stir up trouble.
